

EQUALITY MONITORING FORM

Important Please fill in this form. It is IMPORTANT to help us check that the planning system is working well for EVERYONE.
Birmingham City Council has a policy of equal opportunities for all and has to comply with equality legislation which seeks to ensure that in the delivery of services all members of the community are treated fairly. This means that we are committed to providing an equally high standard of service to all applicants whatever their background. We want to make sure that this policy is working when people apply for planning permission. This form needs to be filled in by the applicant (the person applying for planning permission) and returned with the planning application. The applicant may allow someone else such as their agent to complete the form for them.
Please send this form back to us with your planning application. The information on this form will be treated as confidential and will only be used to help improve our services. It will not be used for anything else and will have no effect on the way your application is decided.

EQUALITY MONITORING OF PLANNING APPLICATIONS

Your questions answered

1. Why is it important to fill in and return this form?

We want to have the best possible planning service for everyone. Your information will help show us if we can improve the way we work.

2. Will filling in this form affect my planning application?

No. It will not affect your application in any way. The form will not be seen by the people who make a decision on your application – all decisions are made only on the merits of the application itself.

3. What happens to this form after I have filled it in?

After you have returned the form, the information will be recorded by the Planning Department. The actual form will then be destroyed. The information will be kept strictly confidential.

4. How will the information be used?

It will be used to check that the planning system is working fairly and to find out if we need to improve our service to any groups. Reports will be presented to the City Council's Planning Committee, who will take whatever action is necessary. For example, we may find that planning policies need to be changed to take into account the needs of different groups.

5. Can I see the results?

Yes. The same reports that are presented to the Planning Committee will be available to the public. Please contact us

If you wish to know anything further about equality monitoring, please contact planningandregenerationenquiries@birmingham.gov.uk or write to PO Box 28 Birmingham B1 1TU.
