LEIGH PRIMARY SCHOOL
Leigh Road, Washwood Heath, Birmingham, B8 2YH
Leigh Primary School is looking for its next inspirational leader to drive forward improvements and secure future performance. Are you an outstanding leader, able to inspire and lead our team of staff and children?

About our school:
Leigh Primary School is one of the family of schools within Leigh Multi Academy Trust. The Board of Directors are looking to appoint a Head Teacher for this popular two form entry school which currently holds additional bulge year group classes in Years 3, 5 & 6 and a 39 PT place Nursery. There are currently 551 pupils on roll and the intention is to revert back to a 2 form entry school over the next 3 years. Leigh is an inner city, multi-cultural school rated as ‘Good’ by Ofsted.

The school serves a diverse community and relationships between families and the school are excellent.

Our ideal candidate will have:
· Impressive levels of commitment, drive and resilience
· Clear focused vision to take our school forward
· Excellent understanding of effective strategies for raising attainment and achieving excellence
· The desire to be an inspirational role model with strong leadership, management and organisational skills and excellent inter-personal skills
· The ability to be reflective, with good communication and listening skills; able to recognise current strengths, maintaining stability whilst managing necessary change

In return we can offer:
· A strong, supportive team of directors and governors who are well informed and are dedicated to a vision of educational excellence, with commitment to your continuing professional development
· A welcoming, friendly environment, with a committed and dedicated team of staff
· Children who love learning
· Supportive families

We believe this is a very exciting opportunity for a talented, driven individual to progress their career in a trust that is committed to their motto of ‘Together Everyone Achieves More’.

So if you are an experienced Head Teacher or Deputy Head who is ready to take on this exciting challenge we look forward to hearing from you.

For an informal, confidential discussion, please contact Ms Yvonne Wakefield, PA to the CEO and Company Secretary initially on 07916 350 844 or via email – y.wakefield@leightrust.co.uk.

Head Teacher

Salary Range: L21 - L27 £65,384 - £74,985
Hours: Full time
Contract Type: Permanent

BORDESLEY GREEN PRIMARY SCHOOL, Marchmont Road, Birmingham, B9 5XX
Telephone Number: 0121 772 9432, Email Address: l.knowles@blakesley.bham.sch.uk
Start Date: 01.09.2019

We are offering a unique opportunity for an experienced and high performing Senior Leader who is ideally suited to working in a forward-thinking, fast changing environment. Our school is situated in the area of East Birmingham. This opportunity has arisen due to the retirement of the existing Headteacher and Deputy Head Teacher at the end of the Summer Term 2019.

As the operational head of the school you will have the responsibility for the day-to-day leadership. You will have a proven track-record of raising pupil achievement. You will understand the importance of internal communications systems and manage performance data expertly, you will be able to demonstrate your ability to motivate staff and hold them to account. You will have an excellent understanding of high quality teaching and be able to provide leadership, guidance and inspiration for the whole school community.

For the first two years you will benefit from the support and guidance of the Executive Head Teacher (Bordesley Green and Blakesley Hall Primary Schools). Both schools are and will remain separate local authority maintained schools.

You will receive a personalised programme of training, mentoring and coaching with the knowledge that after two years you will have developed the high quality knowledge and experience required to confidently take on the full range of strategic and operational aspects of Headship, without the Executive Head Teacher.

You will have the immediate benefits of working within a strong consortium group, an exciting teaching collaboration of schools and a well-established network of leadership support from upon which you will be able to draw and learn from.

This is an exciting opportunity for the right leader to grow into the role and be central to securing the on-going success and future improvement of the school. It is anticipated that... the successful candidate will be instrumental in recruiting and appointing a Deputy Head Teacher in the Summer Term.

Closing Date: 06/03/2019, 12:00

Visits to the school are welcomed and we can offer the following dates: Monday 25th February @1.30 and Friday 1st March @ 9.15. To arrange a visit please contact Sandra Hannington on 0121 772 1601 or email: s.hannington@bordsgrn.bham.sch.uk

The Summit Learning Trust Executive Team provides excellent expert support in all key areas, allowing leaders to focus on teaching and learning. Principals work closely together across Trust schools to share good practice, collaborate, and support each other.

The children, staff, governors and Trust are seeking a person who:

• Is an NPQH qualified primary school leader

• Has high expectations and can provide strong, innovative leadership to lead Pegasus forward on its journey to excellence

• Is approachable, and can inspire, motivate and encourage children, staff and the school community to excel
  • Has the welfare of staff and children at the heart of their work
  • Is forward thinking and honest
  • Listens, and is an excellent communicator

• Has successful previous experience of leadership and of working positively with parents and carers
  • Has had a significant, proven impact on raising standards in their current role

• Is looking for dynamic collaboration with other, high-calibre Principals and Executive Directors across the Trust

• Is keen to make a significant contribution to the realisation of the shared Trust and school vision and strategy
• Demonstrates curiosity, energy and determination
  • Is resilient and optimistic

  We offer the right candidate:

  • Well-behaved, courteous and talented children who want to learn and want to be challenged
  • Supportive parents and local community
  • A motivated and collegiate team of Principals and senior leaders within the Trust who willingly share their expertise
  • A dedicated team of staff who are keen to improve and provide great learning experiences for all children.

If you have the drive and vision to lead Pegasus to reach its potential, we would be delighted to hear from you.
You are most welcome to visit the school.

Interviews to be held on: w/c 11th March 2019

If you would like to apply for this position you will need to complete an application form.

Our application form is available online from our website www.hillcrest.bham.sch.uk/vacancies. If you have any queries, please contact the school on 0121 464 3172. Completing your application form:

- Please read all the information provided before completing your application form.
- Please complete your form electronically (this is our preference) or, if handwritten, please use black ink: it is going to be photocopied and so needs to be legible.
- Birmingham City Council application forms and CV’s are not accepted: we need information about all applicants to be presented in a consistent format so please use the application form on the school website.
- Please complete all sections: do not leave any blanks; put N/A if not applicable and give as much information as you can.
- Please continue on a separate sheet if you require more space to complete any section.
- Please include a cover letter addressed to the Headteacher outlining why you think you are suitable for the role (should not exceed 2 sides of A4)

Guidance for the completion of the section ‘other relevant information in support of your application’ This is an important section of the application form as it gives you the opportunity to tell us specifically why you think you should be considered for the job, showing how well your skills, abilities and experience meet our requirements. You should give clear examples rather than simply stating that you possess certain skills and abilities.

Telephone Number: 0121 743 3402, Email Address: recruitment@ninestiles.org.uk
Start Date: 01/04/2019

Whether you’re experienced or newly qualified, this is an opportunity to join a department with a supportive and collaborative ethos at Lyndon School.

Join our friendly, thriving and supportive staff team at Lyndon, and you will be in a school where (as reported by OfSTED) ‘Leaders know their school well....their actions to improve the school are effective. Leaders think carefully about pupils’ welfare, take an innovative approach to make sure that they support pupils effectively, (and) have designed a coherent and broad curriculum...as a result, pupils’ progress at key stage 3 is strong’.

Lyndon is part of Summit Learning Trust comprising Lyndon itself, Ninestiles School, Cockshut Hill School four primary schools and the Sixth Form College Solihull. The leadership team of Lyndon is progressive and has the vision, drive and support to lead the school on a journey of excellence, with staff that have a passion for teaching and learning. Join us and you will be part of a fantastic faculty with a strong team ethos. We believe in working collaboratively, sharing ideas and supporting each other to achieve great things as we further develop innovative teaching and learning strategies.

Here at Lyndon we aim to create opportunities and support achievement for our students and teachers alike. Right now, we are seeking a highly motivated, innovative and well-qualified Teacher of Science who is committed to maintaining a consistently high standard of learning and teaching – as well as creating a nurturing environment within which everyone can reach their full potential.

As an excellent and enthusiastic Science Teacher with a proven teaching ability and coupled with a relevant degree, you will be part of a supportive department teaching across Key Stages 3 and 4 and the whole ability range, working together to create an extremely positive learning culture based on high expectations. We will ensure a role that offers you the opportunity to share your excellent subject knowledge, and the challenge to support all our groups of students to make outstanding progress.

Why work for us?

The Trust offers:

• Leadership development opportunities
• High quality training and support
• Opportunities to work across a number of schools
  • Employee assistance programme
  • Employee discount schemes

We welcome applications from NQTs and experienced teachers alike.

Telephone Number: 0121 566 6607, Email Address: applications@waverley.bham.sch.uk
Job Start Date: As soon as possible
Do you have passion for teaching Maths?

• Have you got the drive, commitment and dedication in making a difference to our student’s life chances?
  If so, then our Maths Teacher post may be for you?

What makes us unique?
Waverley Studio College specialises for students from Year 10 – 13. We specialise in health and well-being, creative technology and enterprise. We are a small and unique college catering for 300 students, with a family feel and atmosphere that is growing in strength. We pride ourselves in our students, who behave well and committed to their learning. Our sixth form students do work experience placements every week, in the local community. Our curriculum includes an exclusive enrichment programme to develop their character and softer skill.

What does Ofsted say about us?
In January 2017, the school was rated GOOD. The staff, students and the local community have united in working together exceptionally well. Ofsted have recognised the high-quality expectations and provision across the school. ‘In the sixth form, value-added progress is well above, or at least in line with, the national average and students consistently attain the highest possible grades. The close links between the regular work experience that sixth-form students undertake and their vocational courses are key contributors to their good achievement.’

Our sixth form results for value-added being recognised in the top 4% in the country nationally.

What are we looking for?
We are looking for a qualified (QTS) Specialist Teacher with experience of teaching Maths to join our team. We welcome high-quality new and experienced teachers. You will be aligned to our core values of the college. You would be passionate, willing to go the extra-mile and be prepared to contribute to the wider school. They will be expected to provide outstanding lessons to ensure excellence and achievement for all learners, with a true commitment to raising standards. You will need to have experience of using a variety of approaches to continually enhance teaching and learning of Maths throughout the College across the full age and ability range. You will also need to have excellent communication skills and the ability to forge strong working relationships within the Maths team and the Trust as a whole. The ideal candidate will have an excellent track record of teaching and student progress within a successful secondary school.

Are you interested in this role?
Our staff and students are welcoming and inviting. You could pre-arrange a tour around our school, if you so wish?

Closing Date: 25/02/2019, 10.00, interviews will be held later that week
For an application pack please visit our website: www.waverleystudiocollege.co.uk
Only applications submitted on the schools application form will be accepted. Completed applications should be sent to: Applications@waverley.bham.sch.uk
Please note, if you have not heard from us within 2 weeks of the closing date, please assume that on this occasion, your application has been unsuccessful. For further enquiries please call 0121 566 6607.

SPECIAL

HEADSHIPS

Head Teacher
Salary Range: L21 - L27 £65,384 - £74,985
Hours: Full time
Contract Type: Permanent
FOX HOLLIES SCHOOL, Queensbridge Road, Birmingham, B13 8QB
Telephone Number: 07736791138, Email Address: martin.blair@hays.com
Start Date: September 2019

Fox Hollies School is an ambitious, inclusive and caring school for young people aged 11-19 with cognition and learning needs and severe learning difficulties. All have communication barriers and around 50% have a diagnosis of autism. The school has grown significantly in recent years and there are currently 102 on roll with the demand for places high. The current Head Teacher is retiring and Governors are now looking to appoint a new Head Teacher with the ambition and skill set to build on the school’s many strengths and take it forward to even greater levels of success.

Fox Hollies has an excellent reputation locally and further afield. Central to this success is an engaging and highly personalised curriculum focussed on developing the confidence, knowledge and skills for all pupils to enjoy a rich life.

This is delivered by a highly skilled, committed and supportive staff team, who are focused on enabling the young people to grow and develop in a safe, happy environment. This expertise and motivation will provide the strong foundation for future success.

The next few years promise to be just as dynamic and exciting for the school and the new Head Teacher. In addition to embedding and extending the excellent work that the school currently does, the school is one of the founding partners of the Birmingham Special Schools’ Co-operative Trust which formed in November 2018. The Trust schools and partners work together to share expertise, provide professional development opportunities for staff and collaborate to improve outcomes for all of the pupils in the schools. With the Trust very much in its infancy the new Head Teacher will play a key strategic role in shaping its future alongside other committed professional colleagues.

If you are a dynamic and experienced senior leader in education, with experience of working in an SEN setting, this role offers you an outstanding opportunity to challenge yourself in a new environment. You must have a successful track record of sustained improvement and a determination to maximise the opportunities available. You will be highly motivated and driven, with a commitment to ensuring the highest quality of teaching and learning. You will have the creativity and vision to inspire and lead change together with the focus to ensure successful outcomes are reached. You will have a ‘can-do’ attitude that will motivate and engage students, staff and the wider community. Whilst displaying compassion, you will be skilled at holding staff to account and also be accustomed to personal accountability for student outcomes and all aspects of your work. Above all you will ensure that the young people, their learning and developing their potential remains at the heart of all decisions.

Closing Date: 04/03/2019, 09:00

To find out more about this exceptional opportunity please visit: www.hays.co.uk/jobs/fox-hollies-school or contact Martin Blair at Hays Leadership 07736791138, or email: martin.blair@hays.com for a confidential discussion, to arrange a visit to the school or to discuss making an application. Please do not use online “Apply” options.

Schools HR Workplace Mediation

If communication and relationships break down at work, it can lead to one of the most upsetting and stressful times in a person’s career.

This can happen for a whole variety of reasons such as personality clashes, communication problems, perceptions of unfair treatment, allegations of harassment and bullying, etc, etc.

But there is help at hand.....Schools HR have a team of professionally trained and highly experienced Mediators who work in schools across Birmingham and the West Midlands, resolving conflict between individuals and large teams.

Mediation is informal, confidential, and voluntary. With the help of an impartial mediator, individuals have the time and space to discuss and resolve their issues in a safe and respectful environment.

Mediation is not about who is right or wrong, but seeks win/win solutions, so that everyone’s needs are addressed.

If you think you or someone you know could benefit from Mediation, please feel free to contact us for a no-obligation and confidential chat.
