

Do You Know Your Local History?

The Local Heritage Competition for Young Historians!

We want to get children excited about their local heritage. As the UK's second city, Birmingham is teeming with exciting & accessible historical sites. BEP, BCC & Peters invite all Birmingham Primary schools to participate in the Men & Women of Birmingham Competition by coming up with an innovative way to tell the story of the "3 Gold Men" or the "Three famous Marys of Birmingham". **

It's simple! Just tell us:

- Who are these people?
- What facts can you gather about one or more of them?
- Devise a creative way of telling us what you have found out that would interest visitors to Birmingham.

What will you win?

1st Prize: £500 voucher to use at Peters on books
Runner Up: £250 voucher to use at Peters on books

Prizes will be presented by Cabinet Member for Education, Skills and Culture - Cllr Jayne Francis and winning work will be displayed in the Birmingham City Council House with the winning child/children having a visit.

Deadline for submissions:
8th April 2019.

Winners will be contacted early in the Summer Term.

For full details please see
competition details

Competition Details

We want to get children excited about their local heritage. As the 2nd city in the UK, Birmingham is teeming with exciting & accessible local history. BEP , BCC & Peters invite all Birmingham Primary schools to participate in the Men & Women of Birmingham Competition by coming up with an innovative way to tell the story of the “3 Gold Men” Statue found on Broad Street (Matthew Boulton, James Watt and William Murdoch) or the “Three famous Marys of Birmingham” (Mary Sturge, (Florence) Mary Barrow and Mary Lloyd). Much of the material is online and can be challenging reading material.

WHO CAN ENTER?

Any Birmingham Primary or All-through (KS1&2) school. We don't mind which year group you do this with, it could be as a class, an after-school club or for individual children.

HOW TO ENTER?

Simply submit your project by Monday 8th April 2019. Depending on the nature of the work, projects can be emailed to danietha.hayden@bep.education or delivered to the BEP office, Unit G4-G5, The Arch, 48-52 Floodgate Street, Digbeth, B5 5SL FAO: Danietha Hayden. It should be possible to display the entry on a board. Please include the name and email address of a lead person who can be contacted.

WINNERS

Winners will be contacted early in the summer term.

- 1st prize: £500 voucher to use at Peters on books
- Runner Up: £250 voucher to use at Peters on books

Prizes will be awarded to the school entrants represent and presented by Cabinet Member for Education, Skills and Culture - Cllr Jayne Francis and winning work will be displayed in the Birmingham City Council House with the winning child/children having a visit. To arrange the tour please contact education@birmingham.gov.uk. A picture of winning entries will also be displayed in the BEP Newsletter.