The band will lead the singing of the hymn "O God our Help in Ages Past".

Before the singing of the hymn, the Military Band will play over the first two lines of the tune.

- O GOD, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our Shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.*
- Beneath the shadows of Thy Throne,
Thy Saints have dwelt secure,
Sufficient is Thine Arm alone,
And our defence is sure.*
- Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting, Thou art God,
To endless years the same.*
- A thousand ages in thy sight,
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.*
- O God our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal Home.*

Act of Commitment – The Bishop of Birmingham will say:
Let us pledge ourselves anew to the service of God and our fellow men;
that we may help, encourage and comfort others and support those working for the relief of the needy and for the peace and welfare of the nations.

We say together:

Lord God our Father we pledge ourselves
to serve you and all people in the cause of peace,
For the relief of want and suffering and for the praise of your name.
Guide us by your spirit;
Give us wisdom;
Give us courage;
Give us hope;
And keep us faithful now and always.
Amen

All will say: The Lord's Prayer.

Our Father
Which art in heaven
Hallowed be thy name
Thy Kingdom come
Thy will be done
In earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive them that trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom
The Power and the glory
For ever and ever. AMEN

The National Anthem

(V.I.Ps, Parade Commander, Officers Commanding Detachments and all ranks not with Detachments to salute).

The Service of Remembrance

Introduction

Act of Remembrance – the Chaplain will say:

Let us remember before God, and commend to his sure keeping:
Those who have died for their country in war;
Those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure
And all those who lived and died in the service of humanity.

Act of Commemoration – The Vice Lord Lieutenant will say:
"They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them."

All will respond: "We will remember them."
