

If you wish to make copies of material, we do require you to agree to the terms set out below and pay a fee of £3.50 per day. Payment is taken when you visit us.

I have been granted permission (where appropriate) to photograph/save images/print archival, surrogate, and Special Collections material held by the Library of Birmingham subject to the following terms:

1. Flash photography may not be used.
2. Staff will retain a list of material viewed by the researcher at each visit as a record of items photographed/printed/saved.
3. Staff reserve the right to prohibit this service if it is believed that the photographic process may cause damage to the item concerned, or that the item may not lawfully be copied under current UK Copyright legislation.

COPYRIGHT AND DATA PROTECTION DECLARATION

Where the items to be photographed are still in Copyright, or contain information subject to the Data Protection Act 2018 and UK General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR), I declare that:

- a) I will not use the images for anything other than private research or study, or other non-commercial purposes;
- b) I will not supply a copy of the images in any media to any other person;
- c) I will not publish any images without prior authorisation;
- d) To the best of my knowledge the Copyright owner of the work I intend to photograph has not prohibited copying;
- e) I will not photograph more than 5%, or a single chapter of any book, or more than one article from any journal or periodical.

I understand that if the declaration is false the images concerned will be an infringement of Copyright and that I shall be liable for this infringement. I also understand that under the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018 and UKGDPR I am personally liable for the use of any personal data contained within the images taken.
