

Birmingham Black History Month Health Conference 2023
Global Communities, Local Challenges, Partnership Solutions
Call for Posters

As part of the Birmingham Black History Month Health Conference 2023, we are hosting an ePoster competition to showcase the wealth of experience and excellent work of partners across the city.

We are inviting a wide range of online poster submissions from diverse audiences.

Considerations for poster topics

- Have you carried out a project or other activity related to ethnic health inequalities that you would like to share with others?
- Does this project or activity align with any of the 3 priority themes of the conference:
 - Shine the light on issues.
 - Celebrate and Connect with Communities.
 - Share emerging practice and learning.
- Does this project or activity align with our local:
 - ICS strategy clinical priorities: Circulatory disease, Infant mortality, Respiratory disease, Cancer and Mental health
 - Health and wellbeing board strategy priorities – Physical Activity, Food, Mental Wellbeing, Healthy Ageing, Addictions.

Winning posters will be announced at our end of conference celebration event on 31st October 2023 and will receive a certificate of recognition in the two categories below:

- Best academic research poster
- Best community organisation poster
