Order for Appeal Hearing

1. The employee and their representative and the headteacher or other person presenting the management case shall attend the hearing simultaneously to present their respective cases.
2. The chairperson of the appeal committee will perform the necessary introductions.
3. The employee and/or the employee's representative will present the employee's appeal and may call witnesses.
4. The headteacher or other person presenting the management case may question the employee and/or the employee's representative.
5. The members of the appeal committee and the school's HR advisor may question the employee and/or the employee's representative.
6. The headteacher or other person presenting the management case will present that case and may call witnesses.
7. The employee and/or the employee's representative may question the headteacher or other person presenting the management case.
8. The members of the appeal committee and the school's HR advisor may question the headteacher or other person presenting the management case.
9. The questioning of any witnesses called will follow the sequence outlined above.
10. The headteacher or other person presenting the management case will sum up the case presented and should ensure that any advice they wish to give to the committee (and which a headteacher is entitled to give to a governing body or any of its committees) is given at this stage.
11. The employee and/or the employee's representative will sum up the employee's case.
12. The headteacher or other person presenting the management case and the employee and the employee's representative will withdraw from the hearing.
13. The appeal committee will consider the evidence presented and take a decision.
14. The committee may recall the headteacher or other person presenting the management case and the employee with the employee's representative to clear points of uncertainty on the evidence given, provided that both parties are recalled even if the point of uncertainty concerns the evidence of one party only.
