

Daily rate relief and supply teachers

The School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document provides that teachers employed on a day-to-day or other short-notice basis must be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Document on a daily basis calculated on the assumption that a full working year consists of 195 days, periods of employment of less than a day being calculated pro rata.

Such a teacher who is employed by the same authority throughout a period of 12 months beginning in August or September must not be paid more by way of remuneration in respect of that period than would have been paid had the teacher been in regular employment throughout the period.

Teachers employed on a day-to-day or other short-notice basis are covered by only some parts of the Burgundy Book – see paragraph 1.2 of the Burgundy Book
