The court orders that a power of arrest under section 27, Police and Justice Act 2006, applies to the following paragraph of an order made by HHJ Emma Kelly on 27 February 2026 (“the Order”):

(Here set out those provisions of the order to which this power of arrest is attached and no others)

1. The Defendants are forbidden from participating in a street-cruise within the Claimant’s local government area (known as the City of Birmingham) the boundaries of which are delineated in red on a map attached to this Order at Schedule 1.

*(Where marked * delete as appropriate)*

This power of arrest only applies to persons participating in a street-cruise as the driver or rider of, or a passenger in or on, any vehicle to which paras 1 and 2 of Schedule 2 to the Order applies.

For the avoidance of doubt, the power of arrest granted by this Order does not apply to any other person participating in a street-cruise within the meaning of Schedule 2 to this Order such as, for example, a spectator.

Power of Arrest

The court thinks that—there is a significant risk of harm to a person.

A power of arrest is attached to the order whereby any constable may (under the power given by section 27 Police and Justice Act 2006) arrest without warrant a person if he or she has reasonable cause to suspect that the person is in breach of the provision.

This Power of Arrest

This Power of Arrest shall remain in force until 23:59 on 27 February 2027 unless varied or discharged by further Order of the Court.

Note to the Arresting Officer

Where a person is arrested under the power given by section 27, Police and Justice Act 2006, the section requires that:

- A constable who arrests a person for breach of the injunction must inform the person who applied for the injunction.
- A person arrested for breach of the injunction must, within the period of 24 hours beginning with the time of the arrest, be brought before—
 - (a) a judge of the High Court or a judge of the county court, if the injunction was granted by the High Court;
 - (b) a judge of the county court, if—
 - (i) the injunction was granted by the county court, or
 - (ii) the injunction was granted by a youth court but the respondent is aged 18 or over;
 - (c) a justice of the peace, if neither paragraph (a) nor paragraph (b) applies.
 - In calculating when the period of 24 hours ends, Christmas Day, Good Friday and any Sunday are to be disregarded.
 - The judge before whom a person is brought under subsection (3)(a) or (b) may remand the person if the matter is not disposed of straight away.
 - The justice of the peace before whom a person is brought under subsection (3)(c) must remand the person to appear before the youth court that granted the injunction.
