Register of interests

Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

Disclosable pecuniary interests must be notified to the Monitoring Officer within 28 days from when you become a councillor in accordance with the statutory requirements of the Localism Act 2011. These are enforced by criminal sanction, and failure to register or declare such an interest at a meeting is a criminal offence. You must keep your register up to date so, as soon as a new interest needs to be registered or you cease to hold an interest, you must also notify the Monitoring Officer within 28 days.

You must register your own disclosable pecuniary interests and those of your partner, which means spouse or civil partner, a person with whom you are living as husband or wife, or a person with whom you are living as if you are civil partners.

It is a criminal offence under the Localism Act 2011 to:

- fail to notify the Monitoring Officer of any disclosable pecuniary interest within 28 days of election or co-option
- fail to disclose a disclosable pecuniary interest at a meeting if it is not on the register
- fail to notify the Monitoring Officer within 28 days of a disclosable pecuniary interest that is not on the register that you have disclosed to a meeting
- participate in any discussion or vote on a matter in which you have a disclosable pecuniary interest
- knowingly or recklessly provide information that is false or misleading in notifying the Monitoring Officer of a disclosable pecuniary interest or in disclosing such interest to a meeting.

The criminal penalties available to a court are to impose a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and disqualification from being a councillor for up to five years.

Where you have an interest which you believe is a 'sensitive interest' that you do not want to or cannot disclose you should discuss this with the Monitoring Officer. A 'sensitive interest' is defined in legislation as one which, if disclosed, could lead to you or someone close to you being subject to violence or intimidation. But it may also include things which cannot be disclosed for other legal reasons, such as sensitive employment covered by the Official Secrets Act.
