

Photo Evidence of the Poolway Shopping Centre.

The Poolway Centre and surroundings – including the Kent's Moat Recreation Ground, site of the Meadway flats. (Aerial photo 2012 taken from south).

The Poolway Centre. Site of former Arley House flats and PFS to left fronting Sheldon Heath Road. Kents Moat Recreation Ground to right with fenced area of former Meadway flats top right. Surface level car park to left of centre with community buildings fronting the main road (Meadway).

Poolway photographs – September 2016

Poolway Shopping Centre – main frontage to the Meadway.

The Pedestrian square and exit to the surface car park.

Pedestrian entrance from the Kent's Moat Recreation Ground

Pedestrian Square and the now vacant supermarket .

Shops beyond the wall were converted to ground floor flats in 2000

Community buildings on the Meadway frontage. The Centre car park is to the rear.

Car parking to west of the shopping centre – flats to the right, the rears of shops with flats above in the distance.

Flats to the west of the shopping centre.

Shared residential and commercial access to east of shopping centre. Access to flats is gained from stairs between the garage blocks.

The surface car park to the west of the shopping centre.

Rear elevation of the shopping centre overlooking the Kent's Moat Recreation Ground.

Rear and east elevation of the shopping centre overlooking the Kent's Moat Recreation Ground, with pedestrian access to the centre to the left.

Flats at the south west of/above the shopping centre.

Flats at the south west of the shopping centre.