EVA'S PARTING WORDS.

"I sent for you all, my dear friends," said Eva, "because I love you. I love you all; and I have something to say to you, which I want you always to remember. — I am going to leave you. In a few more weeks, you will see me no more" *** I want you to remember that there is a beautiful world, where Jesus is. I am going there, and you can go there. — it is for you as much as me." — see 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.' chap. 26.

Music by STEPHEN GLOVER.

ANDANTE CON DOLORE.

The piano introduction is in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a treble clef staff containing a few notes, followed by a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The music is marked mf and includes several Ped. (pedal) markings and asterisks. The piece concludes with a dim. (diminuendo) marking.

Come near me all, and hear me speak, My voice is weak and low, But you must

The first line of the song features a vocal line in the treble clef and piano accompaniment in the grand staff. The lyrics are: "Come near me all, and hear me speak, My voice is weak and low, But you must". The piano part includes a p (piano) dynamic marking.

hear my parting words, Dear friends, before I go. I love you,

The second line of the song continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "hear my parting words, Dear friends, before I go. I love you,". The piano part includes f (forte) and p (piano) dynamic markings.
