

If you are claiming Council Tax Support

Your Council Tax Support award is shown on the front of this bill, reducing the total amount payable. No further award letter will be sent to you. You can view your Council Tax Support claim summary on line

Change in Circumstances - It is important that you notify us of any changes in your circumstances such as moving house, changes in your household income, capital, savings, or who lives with you, as this may alter the amount of Council Tax that you need to pay. These changes must be reported promptly online.

Appeals - If you do not understand a decision made on your claim, you may write to us within one month of the date on your bill to ask for a detailed explanation. If you think a decision is wrong, you can write to us at any time explaining your reasons why and we will look at it again. If we agree the decision is wrong, we will send you a new bill. If we decide it is correct, we will contact you giving a full written explanation. If you still disagree with our decision, or you have not received a response within two months, you can appeal to an independent body called the Valuation Tribunal. For further information please visit the Valuation Tribunal Service website. Even if you have made an appeal you MUST continue to pay your Council Tax until a decision is made. Council Tax Support Appeals regulations can be found online in Schedule 1 Part 2.

Are you receiving Universal Credit? If you are in receipt of Universal Credit, then you will need to make a separate claim for Council Tax Support - you just need to go to the Who can get Council Tax Support section of our web site.

Adult Social Care

For adult social care authorities, Council Tax demand notices show two percentage changes: one for the part of the overall change attributable to the adult social care precept, and one for the part attributable to general expenditure.
